SUMMARY OF DATA
STANDARDIZED TESTS

Carroll Elementary School uses a variety of standardized tests to help track student progress. These tests provide the school with the data to support decisions needed to guide individual students, grade levels, and school-wide improvement. The ISTEP+ test is one type of assessment used to track progress.

mClass Reading 3D (TRC)
(Dynamic Indicators of Basic Literacy Skills)

Kindergarten through 2nd Grade administers mClass tests three times a year. This test provides the staff with a breakdown of basic reading skills. The results give teachers and administration data to identify students that are “at-risk”, at the “strategic” stage, and the “intervention” stage. It also gives us data to monitor the intervention process and meet the needs of all students with individualized instruction.

All of the results of the ISTEP+ and mClass are shared with and explained to parents. These tests are used to make curricular decisions and to document remediation, Title I, at-risk programs, and enrichment programs at the RTI levels. Breakdown of the skill areas from these tests are used to make decisions about our instructional goals and professional development activities.

PUBLIC LAW 221 PLAN
2014-2015

When reviewing the data and comparing the results of the PL 221 Goals for Carroll Elementary, development and revision of new goals have been implemented. Throughout the school year, the three goals have been revisited and revised in order to best meet students’ needs. The following are Carroll Elementary School’s goal areas, with strategies and evaluations for each:

GOAL #1
All students will increase in mathematics problem solving annually, as measured by the ISTEP+ test.

Strategies:
1. Weekly math computation that measures mastery of math facts (see below).
2. School-wide process for story problems (see below).
3. Practice open ended questions in the classrooms (see below).

Evaluation:
1. Math Facts test given with mastery of 80%.
2. Acuity Test
3. ISTEP+ test

Math computation data collection:
Grade 1, last nine weeks
Grades 2 – 4, every nine weeks
Grade 5, first semester only
Grade 6, first nine weeks only

Story Problem Process:
1. Read the problem
2. Break it down: box key words, circle numbers used in problem, cross out extra information
3. Explain the problem

Open ended questions:
Kdg. And 1st, collect only last nine weeks
2nd Grade, collect second semester
3rd – 6th Grade, collect each nine weeks

GOAL #2
All students will increase scores annually in Reading, as measured by the ISTEP+ test and Scholastic Inventory Test.

Strategies:
1. Reinforce testing vocabulary.
2. Student selected reading time daily, including teacher real-aloud and emphasis on different genres.
3. Test in fluency and comprehension.
4. Remediate students scoring below set and expected norms and below grade level in Reading.
5. 90 minutes of uninterrupted Language Arts instruction.
6. Classroom teachers providing acceleration or intervention with paraprofessionals supporting.

Evaluation:
1. ISTEP+ results
2. Acuity results
3. IREAD 3 results
4. DIBELS/READ 3D results
5. Fluency and comprehension testing.
6. Fountas and Pinnell Leveled Reading Intervention (LLI)

GOAL #3
Students at Carroll Elementary will develop writing strategies and skills that are appropriate to their grade level using Writer’s Workshop with a focus on strategies from Katie Wood Ray and Lucy Calkins Units of Study.

Strategies:
1. Students will be writing every day in Kindergarten through Sixth Grade at their appropriate level. Every grade level has 1 hour of writer’s workshop built into their daily schedule.
2. Students will complete a weekly writing assignment implementing one or more of the writer’s workshop strategies that will be assessed with an informal rubric. This information will stay with the classroom teachers and will be used to evaluate strengths and weaknesses in individual students. Weekly writings will be kept in a writing portfolio.
3. Students will complete a published, prompted writing assignment at the end of each unit.

Evaluation:
1. Evaluation of the baseline writing prompt as a formative assessment.
2. Evaluation of each unit writing.
3. Evaluation of the final writing prompt.
4. ISTEP+ Applied Skills results.
5. Weekly, informal classroom formative assessments.
